The GDIB—Global Diversity and Inclusion Benchmarks: Standards for Organizations Around the World—helps organizations of all sizes, in a variety of sectors and industries, using a variety of approaches to D&I work to achieve high-quality D&I outcomes. First published in 2006, the 2016 edition is authored by Julie O'Mara, Alan Richter, Ph.D., and 95 Expert Panelists. It is sponsored by The Diversity Collegium, a nonprofit organization dedicated to advancing the field of diversity and inclusion through think tank dialogues, symposia, research, and publications. ACTIONS TO HELP ACHIEVE THESE D&I BENCHMARKS

☑ 7.4 (GDIB Category 7: D&I Learning and Education. LEVEL 5 BEST PRACTICES)
Challenging and sometimes controversial issues such as racism, sexism, ageism, classism, heterosexism, religious bias, stereotype threat, and unconscious bias are effectively addressed with sensitivity, fairness, conviction, and compassion.

NAVIGATING THROUGH TROUBLING TIMES – PUTTING “UNDISCUSSABLES” ON THE TABLE

“In light of recent horrific tragedies in the US in the past few months, we designed and facilitated a dialogue with about 100 employees attending,” GDIB user, Nancy J. Di Dia, Executive Director, Office of Diversity, Inclusion & Engagement, Boehringer Ingelheim USA, explains. Most were engaged virtually with approximately 20 in a conference room where we were projecting live Skype for Business. “Our goal was to break the silence around race and allow employees to share their impressions and experiences, without judgment. It was co-facilitated by our chief diversity and inclusion officer as well as our director of diversity and inclusion. It was a dialogue about race and the tensions in society with law enforcement officials. It was a respectful, somewhat emotional dialogue with different viewpoints on the topic,” adds Nancy. Participants were from all levels, backgrounds, race and ethnicity and many had personally experienced or had family members impacted by these challenges. Two C-suite executives participated and shared their personal stories and how the events have impacted their families. The premise was to put the “undiscussables” on the table and allow groups the opportunity to share how this was playing out for them at home, in the workplace, in their communities, and so forth. The intent was to have a dialogue. About 20 minutes was spent setting up what this was to be about and articulating the difference between debate and dialogue. Ground rules were set and virtual white boards used so participants could share emotions, thoughts, and feelings without self-identifying. Many used the comments box to ask questions and several were emotional as they shared and learned what their colleagues were experiencing. Boehringer Ingelheim, headquartered in Ridgefield, CT, researches, develops, manufactures and markets novel treatments for human and veterinary medicine. For more information contact, Nancy J. ANNOUNCING AN ALLIANCE WITH THE FORUM ON WORKPLACE INCLUSION

We're delighted to announce an alliance with the Forum on Workplace Inclusion. In partnership with the University of St. Thomas in Minneapolis MN, USA, the Forum "facilitates connections, learning and progress for people seeking to grow their leadership and effectiveness in the field of diversity and inclusion by engaging people, advancing ideas, and igniting change." For the past several years The Diversity Collegium, the primary GDIB sponsor, and the GDIB have been supporting the Forum and vice versa. We will be working with Executive Director, Steve Humerickhouse and the Forum team, supporting each other in many ways. You'll be seeing the Forum logo on GDIB materials, website, and at our launch events. The main event of the Forum is a 3-day conference held at the end of March each year in Minneapolis. Julie O'Mara now serves on the Forum Advisory Committee. Please see below in this newsletter's Upcoming Conferences section information about the March 2017 conference. It is designed for all interested in D&I (practitioners, leaders, and supporters) in all sectors around the world. Go to <https://www.stthomas.edu/workplaceforum/>

3 HANDOUTS FOR THE GDIB ARE NOW UPDATED AND ON THE SITE

- GDIB Overview. This is the "flyer" with the model and has all the essential elements. If you only use one handout... use this one.
- GDIB Benchmarks Sampler. This makes a good back page to the flyer or, of course, it can stand alone.
- GDIB Facts and Features. We originally did this to accompany the news release (you will note it doesn't have a copyright) and it can be useful too—it is also a good one to use for talking points.
- Go to <http://www.diversitycollegium.org/mediatipstools.php> for these and many more tools.

Personal note from Julie: I filled this out and found it thought provoking. It took me only 10 minutes. I encourage you to complete it. It would be great to have something like this for D&I. Julie

PLEASE HELP IN GETTING THE WORD OUT FOR A NEW RESEARCH PROJECT ON ETHICAL DECISION-MAKING THAT CO-AUTHOR ALAN RICHTER IS CONDUCTING IN PARTNERSHIP WITH THE PROJECT MANAGEMENT INSTITUTE (PMI)

The Project Management Institute (PMI) has partnered with QED Consulting to create a survey to explore global responses to ethical issues and dilemmas, and examine the influence of culture as well as gender, age, education, profession, etc., on ethical decision-making. The survey results will illuminate differences in ethical decision-making across diversity dimensions, specifically in the workplace. We wish to gather data from all around the world, so please share this invitation and link to take the survey. It will only take about 15-20 minutes to complete. We will post findings on the PMI website once we have sufficient data analyzed. To take the survey, please go to: www.research.net/r/globalethicsresearch Please only take it once, but share the link freely. The survey will stay open to the end of 2016.

PLEASE DONATE TO DIVERSITY COLLEGIUM FOR GDIB

If you can, please contribute to funding the GDIB. You will notice the DONATE OR PAY button on the home page. And if your organization or your client organizations are able to give grants, let us know. We have so many ideas for research projects and user tools — and thank you to all of you who keep sending us ideas. We continue to get amazing positive feedback and thanks for doing the GDIB. It has now grown to more than Alan and I can fund by ourselves. The Diversity Collegium is engaged and soon we’ll be doing some specific fundraising, but we could use some general help now. Let us know if you personally or your organization can contribute and we’ll facilitate the process. www.diversitycollegium.org.

OFFERING SUPPORT

If you want to use the GDIB in conference presentations, blogs, articles, chapters and so forth, we will support you, if we can, by providing slides, handouts, and ideas.
