The GDIB Newsletter
For: Expert Panelists, Users, and Others Interested in the GDIB
Editor: GDIB Co-author Julie O’Mara

Issue: 7 December 2016

The GDIB—Global Diversity and Inclusion Benchmarks: Standards for Organizations Around the World—helps organizations of all sizes, in a variety of sectors and industries, using a variety of approaches to D&I work to achieve high-quality D&I outcomes. First published in 2006, the 2016 edition is authored by Julie O’Mara, Alan Richter, Ph.D., and 95 Expert Panelists. It is sponsored by The Diversity Collegium, a nonprofit organization dedicated to advancing the field of diversity and inclusion through think tank dialogues, symposia, research, and publications. The GDIB is free and may be downloaded at http://diversitycollegium.org/globalbenchmarks.php Check regularly for more information and new User Tools.

ACTIONS TO HELP ACHIEVE GLOBAL D&I BENCHMARKS

☐ 2.7 (GDIB CATEGORY 2: LEADERSHIP AND ACCOUNTABILITY. LEVEL 4 PROGRESSIVE) Leaders hold themselves and others responsible for achieving the D&I goals and objectives.

HOW THE GDIB HELPED LEADERS BECOME MORE ENGAGED IN D&I

At the GDIB Launch event in Los Angeles on September 22, Denise Kirwan and Lori Heffelfinger, The Heffelfinger Group, described an organization development approach used with a mission-focused, scientific and engineering-based Silicon Valley client. This article is the second of a three-part feature on how they demonstrated specific benchmarks in their work. In the 18 October issue they shared how they achieved Benchmarks 8.11. This issue focuses on Benchmark 2.7. This organization values research and, thus, the leaders resonated with the fact that 95 Expert Panelists from many different sectors, diversity dimensions and regions around the world reached consensus on the benchmarks. Lori and Denise did the following to help the leaders become engaged:
(1) Benchmarked other technology firms in the local area and similar organizations to client
(2) Interviewed organizational leaders to determine business challenges and how Talent Management factored in to those issues
(3) Ran focus groups with D&I teams to understand D&I specific issues
(4) Used GDIB data in interviews and focus groups to determine where best to focus – results said Leadership & Vision
(5) Shared data with Exec leadership in workshop format and got their buy-in and ideas on how business challenges and D&I – engaged their hearts and minds.
For more information, contact Lori Heffelfinger at 310-543-7632 or lorih@heffelfingerco.com or Denise Kirwan at 818-749-7173.

NEWS, IDEAS ABOUT AND FROM USERS AND EXPERT PANELISTS
Do you have news and/or best practices to announce/share? Information you need? Send and we’ll share it.

EXPERT PANELIST MUSHIM IKEDA HAS AUTHORED A CHAPTER IN A THOUSAND HANDS
Insights from her chapter will be provided in the next GDIB newsletter, but if you want to learn more just search the Internet for A Thousand Hands: A Guidebook to Caring for Your Buddhist Community. Mushim’s work helps others integrate diversity and Buddhism. A Thousand Hands is an anthology of 50 articles by Buddhist chaplains, teachers, therapists, and social workers, presenting Buddhist approaches and resources designed to help community leaders respond to the many challenges brought to them by their communities.

THE GDIB IS INCLUDED IN NEW BOOK--Managing Workplace Diversity and Inclusion--BY ROSEMARY HAYS-THOMAS
Managing Workplace Diversity and Inclusion bridges the gap between social science theory and research and the practical concerns of those working in diversity and inclusion by presenting an applied psychological perspective. Using foundational ideas in the field of diversity and inclusion as well as concepts in the social sciences, this book provides a set of cognitive tools for dealing with situations related to workplace diversity and applies both classic theories and new ideas to topics such as United States employment law, teamwork, gender, race and ethnicity, sexual orientation, and other areas. Each chapter includes engaging scenarios and real-world applications to stimulate learning and help students conceptualize and contextualize diversity in the workplace. Intended for upper-level undergraduates as well as graduate students, this textbook brings together foundational theories with practical, real-world applications to build a strong understanding of managing diversity and inclusion in the workplace.
Rosemary (Lowe) Hays-Thomas is Professor Emerita at the University of West Florida in Pensacola, where she developed the university’s first course in Workforce Diversity and was psychology department chair. She has published widely, consulted, and held elected office and fellow status in several psychology organizations. She also holds a lifetime certification as a Senior Professional in Human Resources and for many years was a licensed psychologist. The book can be pre-ordered https://www.routledge.com
WE ARE STILL IN NEED OF FUNDS...PLEASE CONSIDER BECOMING A SPONSOR OF THE SPANISH GDIB

As a recipient of this newsletter, you have likely received an email about an opportunity to become a sponsor of the GDIB in Spanish. Please donate to help make a Spanish Edition happen. Three levels of sponsorship are possible. If you would like us to send you this email again, contact Julie.omara@diversitycollegium.org.

WANT A ONE-HOUR TRAINING WEBINAR ON GDIB FOR YOUR ORGANIZATION?

We can provide something for your Board, Executives, D&I Office, Diversity Council, ERG (Employee Resource Group), Human Resources Group, Marketing Group, Communication Team, or any other group. If you want a private webinar for your organization or to provide a gift to your community, focused on an overview or on a specific part of the GDIB, we are glad to do that for a fee ranging from about $3,000 to $5,000 depending on the degree of effort involved on our part to design it. The majority of the proceeds from this will go to the GDIB as a fundraiser. We will be sending you more information about this. We’ve had several requests for additional learning on the GDIB and this is one way we can provide that. Please remember that the GDIB itself is free and does not require certification to use. If you are interested, contact Julie for more information.

ASK THE EXPERTS – A Q&A SECTION

Please ask questions you have about the GDIB or anything D&I and we’ll ask answer it for you.

How do benchmarks relate to competencies and behaviors?

Benchmarks are organizational standards stated as outcomes. Competencies and behaviors describe the actions, steps, skills, knowledge, ability, and capability of individuals. Clearly, meeting the higher-level benchmarks will require a high level of competence.

Why isn’t there a category on Organizational Culture in the GDIB?

We define organizational culture as a system of shared beliefs, values, norms, habits, and assumptions that impact the organization’s environment and influence how people behave within it. The authors and Expert Panelists concluded that it would be difficult to develop a category on culture and five levels of benchmarks without making assumptions about what an organization’s culture should be. That seems too prescriptive for what we are striving to accomplish with the GDIB. Just as we say that the GDIB applies to and is useful in organizations of a variety of sizes, sectors, and approaches, GDIB is also useful in a variety of organizational cultures.

In addition, certain aspects of organizational or national cultures may assist or hinder the implementation of D&I initiatives and/or the ability of an organization to achieve the benchmarks. These aspects of organizational or national culture should be taken into account when embarking on any D&I initiative or strategy.

PLEASE SEND US YOUR QUESTIONS.

SOCIAL MEDIA TIPS FOR GDIB

Social Media Tips and Tricks

Please Post Now - Share our news and promote D&I best practices by posting the below on your social media platforms:

Which of the 5 Levels is most desirable of the Global Diversity & Inclusion Benchmarks? According to the Expert Panelists Level 5 is the ultimate... but the question must be answered based on the organization’s mission and goals and its stage of development. We think it's not realistic for all organizations to strive to be in Level 5 on all categories. Leaders may decide that a Level 3 is fine for some categories with Level 4 or 5 desired for others. And it may take several years for an organization to move from one level to another. Thus, an organization may determine it currently is at Level 2 on one category and eventually wants to be at Level 4; and they may determine it will take 4 or 5 years to get there. Therefore, they set goals to move up one level every few years. Begin to identify your desired levels with the GDIB now - http://diversitycollegium.org/globalbenchmarks.php

PLEASE DONATE TO DIVERSITY COLLEGIUM FOR GDIB
If you can, please contribute to funding the GDIB. You will notice the DONATE OR PAY button on the home page. And if your organization or your client organizations are able to give grants, let us know. We have so many ideas for research projects and user tools — and thank you to all of you who keep sending us ideas. We continue to get amazing positive feedback and thanks for doing the GDIB. It has now grown to more than Alan and I can fund by ourselves. The Diversity Collegium is engaged and soon we’ll be doing some specific fundraising, but we could use some general help now. Let us know if you personally or your organization can contribute and we’ll facilitate the process. www.diversitycollegium.org.

OFFERING SUPPORT
If you want to use the GDIB in conference presentations, blogs, articles, chapters and so forth, we will support you, if we can, by providing slides, handouts, and ideas.
